January 25, 2012

4 Suspects caught fleeing scene of burglary

The Officers from the California City Police Department have captured 4 suspects late Tuesday night after receiving a call of a suspicious vehicle on Dogwood Avenue. Shortly after 10:00 PM, California City Police Sergeant Shannon Hayes and Officer Brandon Vaccaro arrived on Dogwood Avenue to discover that several suspects had broken into a home on 72nd Street.

The officers spotted the suspects in a white mini van attempting to leave the neighborhood and were stopped by the officers. Officers determined that the female driver dropped off 3 male suspects at the victim's home and they were attempting to flee as the officers arrived.

Officers arrested all 4 suspects in connection with the burglary. Arrested were 45 year-old Joseph Nolan, 42 year-old Carlos Rodriguez, 59 year-old William Stokes, and the driver 42 year-old Yvonne Sessions all from California City. The 4 suspects have an extensive criminal history including prior arrests for theft in California City. They were booked into Kern County jail.
